

Hi Incoming Kindergarten Families!

Happy Summer! Below is a suggested list of books that you might want to read to your daughter before the kindergarten school year begins. As you read, you can stop throughout and ask questions about the book, ask them to make guesses as to what happens next, or guess what the ending might be! These are some great ways to engage students as they listen to reading.

Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus by Mo Willems

If You Give a Mouse a Cookie by Laura Numeroff

How Do Dinosaurs Go to School? By Jane Yolen

Molly the Muffin Fairy by Tim Bugbird

Amelia Bedelia on the Move – by Herman Parish

If you would like your daughter to respond to reading with a little activity, the girls can use the activity sheet (on the next page) to illustrate their favorite part of each book. When they come to school, they can bring it in and they can share their favorite parts of the books. It is a great way to start dialogue about books!

Have a beautiful summer!

Kindly,
